Food Photography Competition Rules

- All entries must be received by midday on MONDAY 23RD FEBRUARY. Entries received after this date may not be considered.
- All entries must in the form of a photographic print. We suggest that prints should be no larger than 40cm x 30cm. Images may be in colour or in black and white. We regret that we are unable to return any photographs.
- Each person may only enter one image.
- Please use a paperclip to attach your entry form to the photograph you are submitting. Do not write on the print itself.
- Images taken on digital cameras, smart phones, tablets etc. are all welcome and photographs which make use of post-processing are acceptable.
- Photographs must be your own original work.
- We regret that we cannot accept entries from professional photographers.
- By entering the Competition, you agree that the organisers may display your image (along with your name and age category) at the Food Festival on 7th March 2015 and elsewhere, at their discretion, and may use your image for publicity and for other non-commercial purposes in connection with this or future such events.
- The judges' decision is final.

- Food-themed prizes will be awarded for the best 3 entries in each age category as shown below. The finalists will also be offered the opportunity to have their winning image professionally printed and mounted (kindly provided by Mr J P Kavanagh) subject to supplying a suitable high resolution file to the organisers. Finalists will be notified prior to 7th March.

- The winning photographs will be displayed at the Food Festival, together with a selection of other entries. Visitors to the Food Festival will have the opportunity to vote for their favourite overall photograph.

By submitting your entry, you confirm that you accept these terms and conditions.

Good luck!
